

Public Comment & Consent Calendar During Online City Council Meeting Addressed Through Call In Option

Council Hosts Regular Meeting at 5pm on April 7

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, COLORADO-April 5, 2020-The Steamboat Springs City Council will hold its next regular meeting at 5pm on Tuesday, April 7, 2020. With city facilities closed to public access, the April 7 meeting will be conducted online like the special meeting held last week.

Citizens will be able to call in to the meeting to make public comment or pull an item from the consent calendar. The agenda for the April 7th meeting can be found HERE.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CALL IN FOR PUBLIC COMMENT OR TO PULL AN ITEM FROM THE CONSENT CALENDAR DURING THE APRIL 7 MEETING:

- Dial 1-888-475-4499 (US toll-free)
- Enter Meeting ID: 985 289 877
- Hit # to join the meeting

General Public Comment for items not on the current agenda typically occurs around 7pm or at the end of the meeting. When recognized by the Council President, please identify yourself by name and address and limit comments to 3 minutes or less. When council gets to the Consent Calendar, the Council President will read the consent calendar into the record, then ask if council or anyone from the public would like to pull an agenda item for further discussion.

General comment to council is also available anytime through email at citycouncil@steamboatsprings.net or via the online comment form at steamboatsprings.net/comment. These two portals deliver your comment to the entire city council as well as the city manager, attorney and clerk.

City Council meetings can be viewed on Comcast TV6, streamed live online and through the city's YouTube Channel. In addition, meetings are carried live on KKSBS-100.5FM radio through the Steamboat Radio network.
