Session II Middle School Afterschool Programs

Mondays: Pottery January 9 - March 6 7 Sessions

Youth enrolled in this class will have a great time creating, designing and completing projects using clay, paint and glaze. They will leave with a great sense of accomplishment and many new skills they can use in the future. Students will finish many projects for themselves or as gifts to give for the holidays. This class will cover multiple different techniques in the potters world. This will be held at Steamboat Springs Art.

Tuesdays: GROW January 10 - March 7 8 Sessions

Girls Reaching Out Wider... A club for girls, led by girls, supporting girls in our community! This dynamic, educational experiential afterschool program is based on group mentoring & quality time with non-parent, female, adult mentors. GROW offers adventures in culture, education, health, the outdoors, resiliency skills & leadership development. Girls participate in different activities each week – the schedule will be sent to participants before clubs begin, including pick-up locations. Healthy snacks will be served at every meeting.

Wednesdays: Climbing January 11 - March 8 8 Sessions

Join Rocky Mountain Ventures for indoor climbing on the Everything Outdoor Steamboat Climbing wall. Students will be shown the art of climbing technique so they can effortlessly climb the wall. Shoes and gear supplied by RMV.

Thursdays: Cooking January 12 - March 9 8 Sessions

Start your love of food off early in life by learning cooking and baking techniques while getting to enjoy the tasty & healthy treats you make yourself. Learn to explore making and trying different cuisines while hanging with friends. Have the opportunity to get creative and choose and create your own recipes!
