

HOWELSEN HILL HUTS FAQs

What is the cost to rent a hut?

Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Race Days will be $80 for the day, weekdays will be $40. If there are unused huts after 4pm on weekdays they can be rented walk up only for $20.

How do I rent a hut?

Go online to www.steamboatsprings.net/ski and click on our “Hut Rentals” page. You will need to create a profile if you do not have one already. If you have a season pass, then you should have a profile.

How many people are allowed in a hut?

As COVID-19 restrictions change, the amount of people may change. Currently up to 8 people can fit in a hut, but they all need to be from the same household.

How many huts are rentable?

You will notice 7 huts throughout Howelsen Hill and Howelsen Park, but only 5 are for rent.

Where will the huts be located?

The rentable huts will be located together on the baseball field adjacent to the Howelsen Hill Lodge. The other huts can be used to warm up in while skiing, but users will need to use the provided cleaning bottle to disinfect as staff cannot guarantee cleanliness during the day. Use these huts at your own risk. One of the huts will be located at the outdoor ice rink at the tennis courts and will be utilized during public ice hours for ice rink users.

What time do we have to be out of the hut at the end of the rental?

All users must completely vacate the huts by the end of lift operations (8pm Monday-Friday and 4pm Saturday and Sunday). Please begin cleaning up and collecting your things 15-20 minutes before the end of the ski day.

How often are you cleaning the huts?

The rentable huts will only be rented to one party per day and will be disinfected every night after a rental. The on-mountain huts will have disinfectant and cleaning supplies on-site for guests to use and are to be used at your own risk.

Am I allowed to bring outside food and drink to the hut?

No, the Howelsen Hill concession stand is selling food and beverages (including adult beverages) which you are more than welcome to take with you to the hut.

Am I allowed to have alcohol in the hut?

You are allowed to buy beer from the Howelsen Hill concession stand!

No outside alcohol is allowed inside the huts because they are within the Howelsen Hill concession stand's alcohol boundary.

How far in advance can I rent a hut? Can I rent multiple days?

On the 15th of each month, the next month will open online for rental. For example: On December 15th the month of January will become available.

Why can't I rent online the day of?

All rentals close online the night before at midnight. You can still walk-up to the concession stand and rent day-of if there are unrented huts available at that time.