

Reds, Whites & Brews Taps New Home on Yampa Street

Festival Moves Down Yampa Closer To Little Toots Park

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, COLORADO-June 21, 2021-Not only will some of the best craft brews and international wines be landing in Steamboat Springs this Saturday, but so will a new location for the Reds, Whites & Brews in the Boat Festival, which moves down to the end of Yampa Street.

Reds, Whites & Brews has evolved into a ‘don’t miss event’ of the summer and returns to the Yampa Valley this Saturday, June 26 from noon to 5pm. As part of the event, Yampa Street between 12th and 10th will be closed along with the portions of 11th & 12th Streets. These roadways will be closed to vehicular traffic starting at 6am on Saturday until a few hours after the event concludes later that evening.

Reds, Whites & Brews in the Boat is a beer and wine tasting event that brings together the craft brews and a variety of international wines from 17 different breweries and wineries along with live music, local & regional food vendors and more. Additional information can be found at redswitesandbrews.net

Mainstreet Steamboat’s Farmers Market also runs on Saturday and brings additional closures on Yampa between 6th to 8th Streets, 7th Street and the 7th Street parking lot.
