

Coffee With Cops Provides Extra Jolt To Caffeinate Spring Rumor Design Coffee Shop Hosts Community Event on May 3

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, COLORADO-April 28, 2023-Looking for that extra jolt to jump start your morning during this transitional season as the valley moves from winter to spring? The Steamboat Springs Police Department (SSPD) has all the ingredients to brew up a great start to the day during the spring edition of Coffee with Cops on Wednesday, May 3.

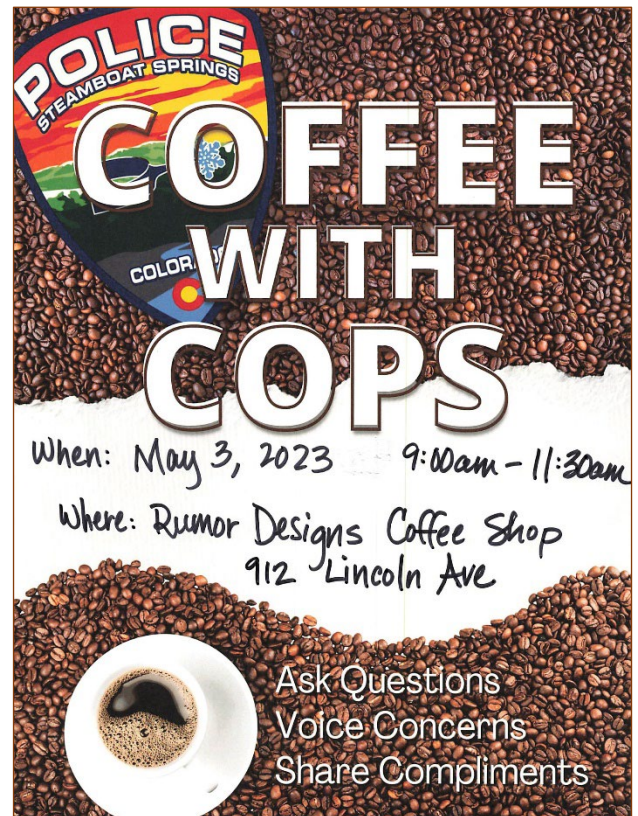

“A good cup of coffee and hot conversation is a great way to start any morning,” said Police Chief Mark Beckett. “It only gets better when we’re able to spend it with residents of our city and learn more about each other.”

Steamboat Springs Police Officers, Community Service Officers, and Animal Control Officers will be on hand for this fully caffeinated edition from 9am to 11:30am at Rumor Design Coffee Shop in the heart of downtown Steamboat Springs (912 Lincoln Avenue).

Enjoy interacting with officers from the day shift while savoring a freshly brewed cup of coffee. In addition, get to know interim Chief Mark Beckett and Commander Rich Brown as well as a several of the officers who have assumed new leadership roles.

Coffee with Cops is based on the police department’s daily briefings, which allows face to face interaction, sharing information and checking in with each other in a compressed time frame.

The program is designed to allow open, two-way dialogue between the community and the police department and our officers. Community members can ask questions and learn about the men and women who serve our community.

Most law enforcement contacts with the public occur during emergencies, or emotional situations. As one can understand, those situations are not the most effective time or way to build relationships.
