

URAAC Seeking Applicants for Three Open Seats

Application Deadline Monday, October 27, by 5pm

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, COLORADO-October 23, 2025-The Urban Redevelopment Authority Advisory Committee (URAAC) is inviting community members and stakeholders to apply for three open positions that help guide the ongoing revitalization of the Mountain Base Area.

URAAC plays an essential advisory role, making recommendations to the Steamboat Springs Redevelopment Authority (SSRA) on how to allocate Urban Renewal Authority (URA) funds in support of the Base Area Reinvestment Plan. The plan focuses on improving infrastructure, enhancing public spaces, and strengthening the overall visitor experience in the mountain area.

Key projects supported by URAAC include the redevelopment of Ski Time Square Drive and public-private partnerships to upgrade the Gondola Transit Center and Meadows Parking Lot—all critical investments in the long-term success of the base area.

URAAC currently has three vacancies and is seeking qualified applicants in the following categories:

- Steamboat Ski & Resort Corporation Representative
- Development Community Representative
- Design Representative

The deadline to apply is Monday, October 27, by 5pm. Interested individuals can complete an online application through the city's website.
